

Marshall Vintage Amplifiers

Marshall Vintage Amplifiers are some of the most collectible and rare of the 1960's British Rock Era- & the most valuable. The first models were hand made by father and son -electrically similar to Fender's Bassman. The Marshalls created amplifiers that would become legendary.

Today's Marshall still resembles this original design. The clean styling and logical control layout has changed little in 45 years.

